

Knights donate over $3,000

Taylor Hermiston Managing Editor

(Left) Knights of Columbus members Glenn Eaket, Paul Corbiere, and Ron Roth present Brenda Lee with a $3,000 cheque to the Vermilion Housing and District Foundation for the Living Well Modernization project at the Elks Hall on Sunday, March 26. The modernization project will be replacing the three oldest wings of the lodge, which was built in 1960, the dining room, and kitchen. The current structure has 84 suites, ranging from 150 to 280 square feet in size, and no longer fir the Government of Alberta's standards to senior access, according to Lee in a letter submitted to the town on January 13. The new building will include 52 new, 350 square feet rooms, which will each have a small kitchenette and walk in shower. Of the 52 rooms, four will be one bedroom couple's suites for a total of 124 rooms and a maximum of 130 residents.
